LOCAL RUMBLE.

MANY THINGS OF MANY KINDS
—Ohio river coal is in great demand at Nashville.
—The Whippleton controversy goes bravely on.
—Ice is still drifting down the Ohio in immense quantities.
—At 9 o'clock last evening the thermometer indicated 28 degrees and the barometer 29.85, and falling.
—S. N. Park proposes to build a splendid hotel on Twenty-third street, New York, opposite his opera house.
—The tide of travel is again turning in this direction briskly. Our different hotels have been well crowded for several days.

—Wash Carter, the negro barber who was placed in the New Albany jail on Saturday, and afterwards brought to this city, is said to be a raving maniac.

—The New Albany Ledger has not heard of a single contract, or an intimation of a contract, to build a steamboat there the coming season.

—Thomas H. Hanna and James P. Garrett, of Toms River, N. J., received diplomas of graduation at the Leavenworth Law School last week.

—Mr. Henry Vincent, the lecturer, is the guest of Mr. J. L. Wheat, President of the Louisville Young Men's Christian Association.

—Rev. Dr. Bowman, of the Indiana University, dedicated the fine Union Methodist Church at Shelbyville, Tenn., on Sunday last.

—Gerard Woolfolk, son of Dr. Woolfolk of Daviess county, Ky., cultivated, last year, one acre of land in tobacco, and sold the crop for $25.

—The Owenton Monitor pays a high compliment to Jeff Brown, Esq., formerly of this city, in connection with his candidacy for the position of Presidential Elector of Kentucky.

—We are pleased to see that Mr. Ewing the police and efficient Superintendent of the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, has regained his health and is now at his post in the Association.

—There are sixty-five churches in Louisville, viz.: Methodists, 15; Catholics, 11; Episcopals, 14; Presbyterians, 3; Baptists, 1; German Evangelical, 3; German Lutheran, 2; Christian, 2; Jewish, 2; Unitarian, 1.

—Since the opening of the last wheat season to February 1, 1858, 61,920 bushels of wheat and 4,131 bushels of rye, or about 25,000 car loads of wheat and rye, have been shipped over the Louisville and Nashville Railroad to points North.

—Meeting was held at the Lebanon,

—Tuesday, February 4, 3 A. M.

—SKATING MASQUERADE.—The success of the first masquerade at Cedar Hill has induced the proprietors of that delightful resort to announce a second skating masquerade for today. Unless the ice should be affected by the sun or a change in the temperature of the weather, the gates will be opened at 3 o'clock. It is not probable at present that any change will take place to interfere with the night's entertainment, however.

The flags will be displayed on the Fourth and Walnut street cars, and the bell at the railroad office will be raised as soon as it is deemed safe to do so. These signals can be relied upon, and the visitors to the park will govern their movements accordingly.

—DISTURBANCE AT A LADIES' FAIR.—On Saturday night a disturbance was created at a ladies' fair in Odd-fellows' Hall, Lexington, during a comb raffle. The comb was to be presented to the young lady who received a majority of the votes at twenty-five cents per vote. When the presentation was about being made, a male friend of one of the young ladies in the minority seized the comb, to bestow it, "whether or no," upon his lady-love. A noise like thunder should have been heard at the time. The comb was snatched from the hand of the young man, and he was compelled to give it up. The young ladies were greatly annoyed.

—A brass band on wheels notified the skaters about town that the ice was all glassy and safe at Cedar Hill last evening.

—Hundreds were charmed by the music and went out to skink and dance upon the rink.

—Under the Gaslight started upon the third week of its production at the Louisville Theater last night. It was witnessed and highly enjoyed by a tolerably large audience. There is every prospect of its complete success for another week.

—Last night the moon was encircled by a delicate but sharply defined vapor halo of immense circumference, presenting a phenomenon of rare grandeur. The atmosphere was quite misty, rendering the whole scene celestial and terrestrial, of singular beauty and interest.

—The delegates from the Louisville Board of Trade to the Commercial Convention in Boston, left here on Sunday morning. Its proceedings will be anticipated with absorbing interest by the commercial people of the whole country.

—Hon. I. C. Winfrey, State Senator from Adair county, has, we are truly glad to learn, purchased an interest in the Alexander House, corner of Second and Market streets. The honorable gentleman has made an excellent legislator, and we hope that he will make a number-one hotel-keeper.

—The steamer Sherman, from New Orleans for Cincinnati, was destroyed by a valence car, and was a total loss.

—Eighteen prisoners escaped from the jail at St. Joseph, Mo., Saturday. During the melee Horace Fitch, brother of Sheriff Fitch, was shot and killed and one prisoner severely wounded.

—The Coroner's jury impaneled to investigate the cause of the death of M. V. Bates will meet, as per adjournment, at the second toll-gate on the Middleboro road at 10 o'clock this morning.

My dearest Friend, who late years have made down't his troubous stream,

—Remember thou youth a golden dream

With gliss of giv'ng serf'ce to me,

To have hard not and gaudy dire,

Thus to avenge his country's wrong,

We left our houses and kindred dear,

As if we had to leave the world,

Would bring naught a tallen tear.

Thus God had lightened all our way;

Whose hands too hard rock,

Whose hands too hard rock,

Where chaw'd old seem to mock,

As when the world had known no day:

How we varied to change the scene and page,

And in another play appear,

Upon a better-lighted stage,

As when the world had known no day:

Let memory gress me with a smile,

The boy who by stood for right—

—Your true friend in the rank and file.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

FRANKFORT.

Destructive Conflagration.

Loss of Forty or Fifty Thousand Dollars' Worth of Property.

(Special despatch to the Louisville Journal.)

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 2.

A fire broke out in Nels & Church's livery stable, on Main street, nearly opposite the Capitol Hotel, at 8 P.M., destroying that building and communing with others, above and below it, as follows: Cap. McCullough's saloon and restaurant, valued at $10,000, insured for $2,000. The contents of the following places of business were mostly saved: Keeney's saddlery shop, Calvert's livery and shoe store, Hefner, merchant tailor, Dr. Samuels, dentist rooms, Mrs. Starling's residence. Mr. Ballou's residence was badly damaged. The shade, stables, &c., in the rear of these, were burned. Church & Nels' stock were saved. The buildings, &c., were valued at $20,000, on which there is an insurance of $5,000. The total loss by the fire is estimated at between $40,000 and $50,000, with but little insurance. The fire originated in the hay stored in the stable. The flames are now checked.

NEW YORK.

Gen. Meade Orders the Arrest of Governor Jenkins.

The Military Departments to be Reconstructed.

Speedy Action to be taken in regard to the Alabama Claims.

The New Revenue Bill in Committee.

Commodore Vanderbilt Now ill.

New York, Feb. 3.

A Washington special to the World states that there is a probability of cabinet members being nominated, and that will certainly be nominated shortly.

Lt-Governor Dennison in Washington.

Information reached here yesterday which led the belief that Gen. Meade has issued an order for the arrest of ex-Governor Jenkins, of Georgia, on the grounds of alleged obstruction to the enforcement of the reconstruction laws. It is believed that he was arrested at St. Louis, to have the Government armed if he could be found in the District of Columbia. The friends of Mr. Jenkins placed sufficient reliance on the information to believe he had his whereabouts of a court martial, but without cause of corps would be respected.

Colonel C. H. Heap, in Texas, gives details of great suffering there, and in the interior of Colorado from starvation and disease, and appeals to the United States for assistance.

The Tribune's Washington special says it is expected that in a few days the President will call a rearrangement of the Military Department, and that material changes in commanders are expected in the Western and Northwestern States and Territories.

Consequence of England's refusal to allow the American troops to be concentrated in the districts of the Mississippi, the United States Government has determined to assert positively that the claims made by the various states must be either within or outside the boundaries of the United States.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill to provide for the gradual reduction of the army, and discontinue unnecessary grades. Referred.

Mr. Pennington introduced a bill granting lands and aid to the railroad from Fort Scott, Kansas, to Santa Fe. Referred.

Mr. Wilson introduced a resolution requiring the transmission of to Congress for the examination of certain patents held by the President of the United States did not do certain things.

Mr. Price asked him whether he had made that statement in reference to Andrew Jackson. He referred it to Mr. Brattin.

Mr. Kett said he had.

Mr. Price declared the thing was entirely new to him. Being a part and parcel of the House, he wished to deny that he had made the statement. At the same time, he had never uttered such a statement, and if he was mistaken he asked the gentleman from Indiana to give the name.

Mr. Kett said the gentleman knew very well it was impossible to carry on in memory all the names and speeches. He had made the assertion and he would repeat it, notwithstanding the gentleman who introduced the bill.

Mr. Price said he had an answer to that.

The morning hour having expired, the Chair announced the session on report in order, and Mr. Ferry entered the floor.

Mr. Kett remanded, disclaiming any right he had to speak in the House, that he had been compelled to do so outside of the House, to correct a statement which he had seen frequently published in Democratic papers throughout the country in reference to a speech made by Mr. Kett.

Mr. Kett (interrupting) said he had an answer to the gentleman's question.

To repeat the act concerning registering ships.

To provide for the orphans of soldiers and sailors who died in the service, and an asylum for disabled veterans.

Relative to a grant for railroads in Maine.

For the relief of the Wm. C. Anderson.

To amend the law relating to promotion of Army, Navy, and enforcement of contracts payable in coin.

To authorize the building of a military and postal railroad from Washington to New York.

Relating to the navigation laws. [The latter provides that any man may become a citizen of the U.S. by any court, on taking the usual oath.]

To authorize the issue of $100,000,000 in bonds, to meet the deficiency caused by cancellation of legal tender.

The United States steamer Wyoming, from China, arrived to day.

In relation to claims of colored soldiers.

In relation to an appropriation for improving harbors in Michigan.

To regulate the charges of express companies.

In relation to the taxation of United States notes. National currency, &c., for State and municipal purposes.

To establish a Department of Justice.

The bill provides for a secretary to be at the head of the department, and a general, a solicitor-general, and an assistant to each, who shall be responsible to the president.
